

A Light

I would like to share with you a light, a light that shines in the darkness.

First, I would like to turn your attention to the lawlessness of the present time.

This lawlessness is sin. Above every disease, above every calamity, sin brings death – death to not only the body, but to the soul, and the spirit.

Sin is the rebellion of man towards God and His creation. From the least of us to the greatest of us, everyone, whether male or female, young or old, native or foreign, has fallen under sin. As it is written in the Bible,

“For all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God.” – Romans 3:23

In this manner, every one of us has rebelled against our Creator. He has given us a law, a law which is in perfect accordance with the way that we should live. It commands us to never lie, steal, envy, or act dishonestly.

In some way or another, we have broken this law. Whether by lying, stealing, or lusting, we have sinned. The Book of the Law is against us. It accounts for our every wrongdoing, and we are guilty by it. None of us are without guilt and there is a price to pay for it:

“For the wages of sin is death ...” – Romans 6:23

But, there is good news. There was one who was faultless for us. His name is Jesus. Jesus is the sacrifice for our sins and our wrongdoings. He came down to the world as the perfect Lamb of God. He was both man and God. He lived a perfect life. He was blameless.

Even though He lived a perfect life, He came down to die. Though He came from Heaven, He was taken up onto the cross, where He bled and died for your sins. He shed His precious blood, so that you may be cleansed from your lawlessness.

If you believe that Jesus bled and died for you, He removes sin from you. By His cleansing work, we are made blameless and can enter into eternal life in Heaven.

“For God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son, that whoever believes in Him should not perish but have everlasting life.” – John 3:16

“that if you confess with your mouth the Lord Jesus and believe in your heart that God has raised Him from the dead, you will be saved.” – Romans 10:9

Moreover, after He died, Jesus rose from the grave so that He may conquer sin and death for us and prepare Heaven to receive us. So, ask the Lord Jesus into your life today so that He may remove your sin and make Him the Lord of your life.

“For whoever calls on the name of the Lord shall be saved.” – Romans 10:13

May God bless you with these words.
